The King County Non-Profit Staff Development Coalition Project presents....

“SPECIAL ISSUES” SERIES: DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Thursday | September 8, 2005 | 9:00am – 4:00pm

Location: Federal Way Campus | Highline Community College | 33320 1st Way S.
Campus Square Office Park, Bldg A, Room 101 | Federal Way, WA 98003

This full day interactive training will provide you with information on how to recognize, understand, and assess for domestic violence. It will also elaborate on ways to address the issue with potential survivors or perpetrators and provide information on community programs addressing domestic violence.

Participants will:

- gain a working knowledge of domestic violence and its causes
- understand and learn how to perform routine screening for domestic violence, and how to identify specific issues that may be indicators of increased dangers
- develop a knowledge of community resources addressing domestic violence, as well as a list of additional resources for further education about the issue

(This workshop has been designed for frontline staff, case managers and counselors who are either new to their roles or as a refresher to those who already hold these positions, and supervisory staff)

Trainers - Mark Adams, M.A., LMHC

Marilyn Liepelt, MSW
