The King County Non-Profit Staff Development Coalition Project presents....

TAPPING THE POWER OF COLLABORATION:

Building effective partnerships inside and out

Thursday | January 12, 2006 | 9:00am – 4:30pm

Location: Safeco South Jackson Street Center | 306 23rd Ave. S., Suite 200 | Seattle WA 98144

This full day interactive workshop explores the principles of collaboration, including trust, listening, appreciation of diverse points of view and the ability to work with people toward a common goal. The workshop also gives participants practical understanding of strategies and tools that enhance collaborative partnerships, including ways to invite diverse opinion from team members, active listening, conflict resolution and feedback skills.

This workshop will also feature a panel discussion on collaborative practices, with the following panel speakers:

Janell Morgan Ndegwa, Management Systems Analyst Assistant, Seattle Public Utilities.

Rochelle Clayton Strunk, Bellevue Center Manager, Hopelink

Mike Beebe, Coordinator of the Common Cents program, Fremont Public Association.

PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- Gain awareness of personal communication and conflict styles
- Identify personal collaborative strengths and areas for growth
- Explore differences and similarities of ways to work together, including collaboration, cooperation and coordination
- Learn tools and strategies to enter into and manage effective and rewarding collaborations
- Learn how to build community and trust across boundaries
- Apply learning to current issues

(This workshop has been designed for frontline, supervisory/managerial staff, as well as case managers)
